Letters ov Blood
114 e.h.

[The following letters are from correspondence between myself, as DevilworshippR (DWR), Tnepres Ra (RA), and Ryan Anschauung, (Ryan) with Lord Karnac (LK) of the Tempel ov Blood over the course of several months. Though brief, the dialogue is from first contact and reveals the internal hidden agenda of the Tempel via many unguarded comments regarding its sinister strategy. These letters are intended for internal use and if they are published, may only be published at least a decade from now due to the sensitivity of the information. The letters date from 2003-2004.]

Noting your post – I would also like more information on obtaining the Ms Emanations of Urania – and, am now interested in what other Ms you may have for sale – or in your possession.

I joined your site briefly to view the files you had uploaded – guessing you were a sector of the Ona. I noted what you had what appears to be the survival guide from Combat 18, and a few others – I also noted the aim of the Tempel – and then removed myself from your group. Why? Unfortunately, my inclusion on your list is akin to membership – while genuinely interested in seeing what else you have to offer, or what I have to offer you, I wish there were some other way to view your Ms and posts without being cited as a member – given your… outlook, it seems that any serious soldier would only add to the strings by which he can be pulled in with clear and recorded association to you.

Date Unknown:

Your membership to the egroup is in no way membership to the Tempel. Simply these individuals are a Blood Pool from which I may draw out individuals interested later on. I understand wanting to keep your name clean. I have all the MSS on the net, as for ONA ms I have Sacrementum Sinistrum, some Fenrir issues, Temple of Satan, some music, really right now most are put away until the fall when I will list, price and distribute a very large Sinister Library. So if you are around then many mss will be available. Our Tempel has a large library of teachings and mss but most will not be available until fall and more next summer. We also have Tempel of Azagthoth mss among others.
If you wish to have "Emanations" send $4.00 to _____
What do you have to offer me? If you are interested in either the Tempel ov Blood or Noctulians then I will be glad to add you to our Blood Pool, but otherwise I guess it is time for you to tell me what you have to offer. If you are a serious 7-fold path adherent maybe next summer you would like to aid in the opening of a Nexion down South, we have some land to work with.
If you wish I will list the current ToB and ToA mss available, anything else you are looking for you will have to ask directly for, our library is very large and I don't wish to write it all down until this fall.

I will wait until Fall to purchase material. Transactions from here to the US are best done en masse.
I'm from Australia – your offer is appreciated but not feasible at this stage. All funds are spoken for.
I don't feel I've wasted any of your time with my genuine enquiry, but I do feel given your reply and your intent - that anything I have to offer will probably only come with opportunity. And, time. Perhaps a contact on Australian soil will serve you someday – or the need for a writer, artist too – we both know what you seek though. Leave a light on for me.
We part here.

Good day, I will keep your email handy if I ever have need of your services.

Oct 15
From LK:

Greetings Comrade,
I have something to offer you. Since you seem to be aiding the Dialect very well with both your art, MSS, and the making of ONA mss public, I thought I would aid you. You said earlier you wanted "Emanations of Urania". I have decided only to catalogue and sell ToB mss due to the fact that most ONA mss are, to my satisfaction, being put online. I would like to send you, at no cost, what you seek. I only ask that you, if at all possible, make them publically available, as I have not the computer savvy to do so. If you give me an address to send them, and tell me what you are looking for, then I will send it. Except ToB MSS. These are only available for both a price, and to be kept private for the time being. This is part of a Sinister Strategy, as well as a means by which the Tempel is aiding its funding and thus growth.

So, sound good?
Sinister Regards

From DWR:

Yes. It does.
This is a generous offer, and I highly appreciate it. 'emanations of urania' and the 'Nine Angles and Dance' are two mss I have been unable to find online or off of it. I am sure there are others of which I am unaware. I will conduct a scan of the mss I do have and let you know if there are others I need, you may have. What you ask, regarding making the mss available, is the least I can do, and will be done without delay.
Regarding ToB MSS, I understand the machinations of stratagem, ~nod~ I will make the arrangements for a P.O. Box and send you the address as soon as I can.
Thankyou.

Lord Karnac,
The MSS I am looking for:
Ursa Major
Nine Angles and Dance
Emanations of Urania
Cliology
Article by Faustius Scorpius in Exeat #2 – "Contemporary Dogma"
A Novice's Guide to Initiation
Oriens Splendour
Homesteads
Stars Coppice
Stars Coppice – A Note
I also understand there are several 'zines' related to the ONA, Fenrir, exeat, eire, etc, suspect the majority of their content is made up of the ona mss already publicly circulated, but cannot be sure of this – Believing you are better connected in regard to this material, are you able to tell me how I might be able to join the mailing list for such magazines?
I would also like very much the Artwork of C Beest you mentioned.
I would also like to know if you have certain musick and audios, Eorthe, Sappho, etc & I understand there is a new ONA cd. Several months ago I sent money overseas for the purchase of it. It did not arrive. – do you have any of this material? Or know where I can get/purchase it?
DWR

Date Unknown

I will send what I have, and will send whatever else I come across as I get it. I do have Eorthe and Sappho is on the way. I have chant samples as well. As for the magazines, the only contacts I have that are directly ONA are unavailable at the moment, but I will inform you if anything comes thru.
I will also let you know once I get the package out. I will do it ASAP, but it may be a week as most. Also, one last favour if you will. I will send along a piece of ToB art, that if you can scan and put online I would be most gracious.
Sinister Regards,
Lord Karnac
P.S. Eorthe is two CD's one is good for meditation on Atazoth, while the other is entitled "Ad Gaia qui laetificat juventutem mean" and that one I use for rituals with the intent of opening Nexions. I will photocopy the ritual book for you as well.
P.P.S I too did not receive my last Ansuz order, if you find out anything about what happened to this, let me know. LK.

Date Unknown:

Acknowledged.

Once again, Thankyou Lord Karnac. It may be strategy, but I am awed by the kindness.
(The last msg I received from AT was on Sept 3rd – the director made several intimations he was moving to new premises, but also promised to send what remained of my order (he DID send me ¾'s of it to his credit – therefore perhaps he chose to acknowledge the rest of the money as a tip!) – this material however did not arrive, and subsequent emails received no response. If I find out more I will inform you.)

upon arrival – I will do what you have asked regarding the mss and artwork. I ordered a large quantity of mss from AT (that did arrive) – it was the music and a mss called psychic rape and crowds (I think) that did not. I did not order any of the NS mss, but if you are looking for a particular ms that was in the AT list, ona section, perhaps I have it. DWR

Date Unknown

Have you put all your mss online? If so then I will probably have them all. If not, then I will tell you what I am looking for. It will probably be easier for you to send them to me, as you can do it electronically. Thanks much,
Lord Karnac

Date Unknown:

My apologies for the delay, legal hell as of recently. Much is on the line. My personal freedom for one. But I assure you I have not forgotten, and I have been striving to get this done. I made copies of "Emanations" and need to look back into the email to see what else I can get you. I will get them to you asap. Even if I am not around to do it, I can have my Mistress finish the job.

Towards Homo Galactica, LK

~nod~ okay.
Best wishes comrade.
DWR

Date Unknown:

I thought I'd let you know a comrade let me use his scanner and now I can put the mss online, in will put them on the ONA group if there is room or the ToB group if not. Do you still need or want me to send them? I can do it over the next few days, as I have them free if you need me to.
Sinister Regards, LK

Date Unknown:

I would still like the mss sent. Do you recall me asking if you had the various cds eorthe, sappho, and the new ona cd etc? a hard copy of these mss and the musicks would be great – I do not currently have access to a printer, and music files etc are far too large for the floppy disk even if I could transfer files to another computer after downloading them from the ona site.

Date Unknown:

Yes, I did forget about those. I do have Eorthe, and I am trying to get Sappho. A friend is mailing it to me, but I will not have it until late next week. Do you want it all on a computer CD (besides the typed mss) or would you like it on a regular audio? I can burn it either way. I can send it all tomorrow or the next day. Sinister Regards, LK

Date Unknown:

Are you interested in posting Sruusis on your site? It is verily the prelude to becoming a serial killer.
Its been uploaded to the main ona site. DWR

Date Unknown:

Thank you, I will read it, and if it has an essence that is in vein to my work I will post it. From what you say I am sure it will.
Also I just burned one of the Eorthe Cd – the darker one. I will burn the other before the sun rises.
Et Illumine sedentes in tenebris Et umbra mortis, LK

My apologies for the delay, I am facing a huge dilemma. Anyhow all the materials I could get have been sent. Emanations, CB Art, and the two Eorthe CD's. I will have my Mistress send Sappho when it arrives. As for the other materials check here and you may have some luck.

A way of not saying thank you, but showing thank you for what you've done.
Sruusis which you posted on the ToB site, is intended as an ONA Ms. But the "Heresy" MS which I have written, is specifically for you and your Tempel ov Blood.

Because it is large, I will upload it to the OnaDatabase without informing others of its being there, please download it and inform me when you've done so and I will remove it from the database to ensure you have the reserved rights to it.
Ryan.

Date Unknown:

Ryan,
Great thanks, I am always very pleased to see works in the name of the ToB. While I will be disappearing for at least six months soon, I will contact you after, and I have some more things to discuss then. Is that PO a permanent address? Or your email?
I am going to check to see if I still have the link and password for the Onadatabase, if not I will have to email you for it.
PS- my apologies, I did send the Eorthe CD's but I forgot the ritual book. It really is not important as it is ceremonial material you need a temple trained in chant for, but if you wish I will send it. I recommend they be used for meditation. Or ritual background.

Sun 16th Nov 2003

Sinister Regards,
I read the first eight pages, not I cannot get to any of them, I have all downloaded but the last though. I must say, it is great. It exceeded my expectations and will be a great piece of Chonozonic Filth to put to use. A look into the dark abysmal energies that would swallow the human whole. Its effects are complimentary to the 333 Introduction which I assume you've read, and at the same time will be easier to understand for those less familiar with certain esoteric concepts. You put the ToB Chronozon Manifesting Sigil to the use it was intended. A little piece of joy has entered my day. It was the best gift you could have given.
Want to make a deal? I will send you all the current ToB MSS that are for public sale, on a CD though as I have not the time due to my situation to print them, nor the money, and after you are done reading them, you contribute to the Tempel. This can be art, writing, or whatever it is you feel you can contribute. I never give the mss away free, but it is not money I seek, it is THEIR RETURN. So I have no problem sending the mss to those who will put them to good use. Just don't tell anyone you got them without cash, and don't give them away without a price. You will have plenty of time to work on the return project since I will be away, but I am sure you will be inspired enough to complete it. Let me know if you are interested… Of course all this is going to mean you are beginning to become part of the ToB Blood Pool… And the door is open for you… Welcome…

Darkest Regards,
BL Karnac Velton

Nov 16 2003

Sinister Greetings,
I got the last page, rest assured this mss is going to be put to good use. I wanted to ask you – have you any previous connection to the BOTD or TOA? I ask as one of my close Czars has said that their was a man who had interesting drawings in Australia who was working with them. I thought it might be you considering there are not many of us around. If so do you have any of the BoTD or TOA mss? I am looking for these.
For Now,
BL Karnac Velton

Date Unknown:

Lord Karnac,
The P.O. Box is temporary but will be active until late February 2004.

My email address is as permanent as anything can be –

And you should have no problems in contacting me.

I would like the Ritual Book – while unable to use it currently, there will be a time when I can – whether for myself or to enable another.

Now,

I will accept the current ToB MSS for public sale on CD, will not tell anyone I did not pay cash, and will not give them away for free. Such MSS will be put to use where they can, by Me, to the best use I can find for them.

I understand that you do not wish to give the MSS away – and am prepared to contribute other works and artworks to the Temple if I think I can contribute.

However, - I wish to know exactly what "Of course all this is going to mean you are beginning to become part of the ToB Blood Pool…" means, before I come to any agreement regarding your otherwise attractive offer.

I have no connection to either the BoTD or the TOA.

Should I come into possession of the MSS you are after however,
I will let you know – and I will provide them to you.

Ryan.

Sinister Greetings Shock Troops,

Some Noctulian art has been added to the files, including the ToB sigil. All of these can be used for Sinister Meditational practices. The forces presenced via the Tempel will be discerned more closely than if the Initiate studies the writings alone.
In the next couple of days the "Illustrated Guide to Chronozon" will be uploaded, I promise it will be a delight for all those Anti-Magian Biological Abominations out there…
Enjoy, it will not stay up for long.

The Chronozon Guide is uploaded. The introductory drawing is recommended for meditation. This looks like a sick comic book, but really the states induced via 333 but have been depicted no better way…
Enjoy,

BL Karnac Velton

PS- it will only be up for a limited time. Much too "sick" for public viewing. ;)

Nov 18

The ToB Blood Pool is a rather abstract concept, vampiric in origin. The Tempel is a living organism, and it has a certain Blood Current. As you have I am sure discerned, it is a very dark chronozic current. Your mss displayed it very well. Any inspiration you receive from using the ToB sigils or mss, or our ordeals is eating and drinking of the Blood Pool. Your contributions are sacrifices of your own Blood-Essence. Thus a communion and transformation occurs. A union. This is what real membership is, not a card, not a title, but communion. The ToB is in some sense an Undead God, and by giving it sacrifices of Blood-Essence those that work with it receive a return flow of higher Blood-Essence, known as the Rain of Mercy in the ToV. I myself in a causal sense am the creator of the ToB, but in a more acausal sense I am merely a channel. I don't control it, I merely give it form. Just so you know, being a part of the Blood Pool does not mean you are part of the "Family" (this term requires some familiarity to Vampirism) and I don't think you want to be part of the Family as that implies acceptance of a Hierarchy that genuine Satanists reject unless they are on top. I, of course, place myself at the top and feed on those below me. But by simply being a part of the Blood Pool you are not part of the Hierarchy, but rather it is just like working with a Dark God, you don't worship Them, you commune – transform – and breakthrough. I hope this made sense, I am not sure if you have any background in Vampirism, but here it is.

If you have liked what you have seen of the ToB so far, and think you will like to be part of the Blood Pool then I will send the CD with the Eorthe manual I will be sending.
As for the Blood Pool concept, to explain it further, the mss you wrote for the TOB was a partaking of the Blood Pool (aligning yourself with our intent) and then adding to it with your own via making a creative project.
Sinister Regards,
BL Karnac Velton

Lord Karnac,

So as not to be entirely ignorant of the concepts of Vampirism, I looked up the book of Wamphyri.

While I am sure you'll agree, there's no 'rather' abstract concepts (since ALL concepts are abstract) if it enables you to lull initiates into the ToB using Art as seduction, Art to compliment the ego of those already in attendance, Art to Will the Temple to Power, which in turn fulfills any of the Sinister Aims of the ToB – then I will to aid you.

You owe me nothing for this, and my terms are likewise. If there were a submission of my will for me to be concerned about it would not be of Hierarchy, but submission to another will.

Ryan.

Nov 19

Ryan,
I will send the MSS along. I will be gone for some time, not sure if I will have an address or not. But once you see me back online or I contact you, then you can give me anything that you may have created. I could use a cover for the "Discipline of the Gods" ms. So if that text inspires any art in you, very well indeed. Otherwise I will leave it to you. I am confident any contributions you make will be aligned with our purpose and aid the agenda I am pushing.
Also, in the future if you need the aid of the ToB in anything, let me know, or let a representative know I said so. We are here to aid the fulfillment of those who have a genuine sinister destiny. You, obviously do.
Sinister Regards,
BL Karnac Velton

Date Unknown:

Lord Karnac,

If you could use a cover for "Discipline of the Gods" then you shall have a cover for 'Discipline of the Gods'.

The MS Emanations of Urania has accelerated my understanding of Aeonics to a degree I've never known – I have given birth to new art by providing abstract models for A. Long's mathematics. (posted on OD).

If I need the aid of the ToB in anything I will contact you or a representative, and for this possibility and connection, I thank you.

Thank you once more for the Eorthe Cd's and CB Artwork.

Finally- I'd like to share this drawing with you (unfortunately too large to scan in one piece) which I did some years back shortly after reading about Aleister Crowley purportedly summoning 'Choronzon', 'of the Pit' to demonstrate both that my style of art is variable, and my immediate apprehension of this 'entity' when I encountered the knowledge of it.
Ryan

I've sent the images via hotmail due to technical difficulties with yahoo.

Nov 20

Ryan,
Great, I look forward to the cover art. I will take a look at the 333 pic and I will send the materials I said I would very soon. I am waiting as I may be getting Sappho in the mail in a few days, if I do then I will send that along as well.
Ga Wath Am,
BL Karnac Velton
I will contact you when I leave so you know to keep anything rather than send it, and later I will contact you about when to send it and where. LK

Dec 4

Lord Karnac, are you any closer to sending the ToB or Sappho materials? I note a member of the yahoo ToB group has issued the intention to construct a deck of tarot cards – if this member intends to construct a deck based on ToB principles and aspects – would an archetype of the ToB differ from the archetypes of the Sinister Tarot? Could you give me an example of an archetype other than Vindex if the ToB's archetypes are in fact different?
Ryan

Dec 5

Greetings Ryan,
Yes, I leave tomorrow, so the materials go out today. But unfortunately mail seems to be slow so Sappho has not come yet. If it comes today, I will send it right away, if not I will send the Eorthe manual and ToB materials. Sappho will still be sent as soon as I can if it does not come.
As for the tarot deck, unfortunately Mr Apollinian Sun will not be making the deck on ToB archetypes. This is a project I wish to see undertaken in the future, by whom I am not yet sure.
His deck I am not sure of yet, I do personally know this individual, and it sounds like he wants to create a personal deck for himself, as well as a collective one. If he actually does this, it will be in the future, but I am not counting on him actually following through. He has very little experience in the Sinister, and while he is intelligent, he is not currently ToB material.
I am thinking his deck will be more like a manifestation of his current psyche.
As for ToB archetypes, we use and encourage the ONA pantheon, but have developed some new archetypes, and also use some others. Looking at the ToB art you often see an Alienic element. Most of the archetypes that originate with the ToB are for use in other groups and currents. For example, Jesus Christ within Identity circles is being turned into a kind of Yashua Vindex, more on this inside the "Coming of Vindex" mss you will receive. Also we have created the "Alienic Terminator Satanic Shock Troop" archetype to infect the psyche of Sinister types and allow for a more fanatical prescencing of the Dark. Some individuals have experimented with older Vampiric archetypes with some interesting results. You will get a better feel for our archetypes by reading the mss. The feel you will get from the ToB is something that has not yet been manifest, the ToB is presencing some new things, and is drawing on all currently available Age of Fire archetypes as well. One major aspect to the Tempel is that those who are successful in the Sinister Path and work with us closely are part of a new Mythos. It is these living Gods who will be emulated and revered by the next generation of adherents. We are creating archetypes around ourselves that will allow for a more tangible and real object of emulation by future Neonates. Anton Long has done this for himself, and very well, as the energies he created as GM are in many ways even responsible for the growth of the ToB if you view it acausally. He has even shaken himself off the Tree, and planted the seeds to the Age of Fire. Even if most neonates are unware of it, the energies of the Dark Gods possess and enthrall all Sinister Adherents who have not yet crossed the chasm.

I hope this has helped. The ToB mss will aid you more.
For Now,
BL Karnac Velton

Notes on the 18.333

B.L Karnac Velton

For those who wish to undertake the 18.333, but have not been able to find a guiding Noctulian… the 18.333 Alchemical Ordeal is the three month task assigned to most Neonates wishing entrance to the Tempel ov Blood. It is an ultimate act of calcination. It causes a total mental and physical breakdown of the Neonate, as well as invoking the Abysmal energies of the Tempel to enter the new Initiates being. In effect, creating a new person.

The following are general recommendations for neonates.

The oil used is usually frankincense and myrhh. This mix is easily obtainable from many herbal and occult shops. The Initiate is then to add their own blood to the mix. While adding blood, they are to chant "Blood, Blood, Blood for the Tempel ov Blood". They are not to consume this mixture despite directions in the 18.333 mss. They are too, at appointed times, rub it onto their flesh. Only half of the mixture is to be used. After the rite, the remains are sent to the Tempel ov Blood. If no guiding Noctulian is available, then the initiate may opt to bury the mixture in a graveyard in a small wooden box. The box is also to contain a copy of the Tempel sigil. The initiate should pour the mixture onto the Sigil within the box. A small pinch of tobacco and goofer dust is often added to the mix, and Vampiric Initiates visualize their Wamphyric tendril coming thru the vial they have on their person and then draining the Blood- Essence of the opfer. As an extra task – during the rite the Initiate is to get a notebook and draw the ToB Sigil 333 times. This notebook is then placed under one's pillow during sleep. This will stay until the end of the rite.

Last – it is unwavering discipline and sinister intent that will pass the Initiate through this difficult ordeal. Anything less is unworthy of a Tempel ov Blood adherent.

Lord Karnac,

Acknowledged. Thankyou for everything.

My own Naos Deck is going well. I expect to have it finished by late February 2004.

I have _____'s details – I will try and maintain online contactability. If you do not return after six months I will send the works to him/her.

Dec 26

Davcina Veltonos/Lord Karnac,
I apologise – I have in fact received the goods and have read through each of them. Having more on my mind than usual I obviously forgot to inform you of their arrival. A rare mistake on my part.

I have written a manuscript pertaining to the utility of Alienic Transmission (The Galactic Organic) within the Galactic Aeon to accompany seven sigils I designed to structure the nature of my Galactic writings.
I am also working toward the concept for the cover of the 'Discipline of the Gods' MS. Without getting too technical – picture a large black piece of paper. On this black piece of paper is a white three dimensional pyramid also made out of paper. Suspended over – but some way below the tip of this white pyramid is a large red piece of paper. The shape of the square in the red piece of paper through which the white pyramid protrudes is on the diagonal. Now picture viewing this from directly above. If you see what I see, you'll see a representation of a nexion/culture/civilization (indeed representation of any causal form) rising from the black acausal through a sea of blood. I find this simple but esoteric image suitable for the nature of Discipline of the Gods – but nothing has been set in stone.
I deciphered Liber Null – and now understand the relevance of the Astral within the organization of the ToB – I think that many artistic endeavours may come from further study.
At this time I am under a heavy workload and have limited time to devote to each of my current projects.
However – I am certain that such developments will take time to come forth, and will be worth waiting for when (not, if) they do.
Again my apologies for my sloppy receipt of the goods. Ryan

Dec 26

Note following GO MSS:
It is my intention to make these and other written works of mine available to a publisher in order to finance my operations. I assure you however – the Heresy MS will not be for public sale. Nor do I intend to publish the majority of works I have on the horizon for the ToB.

Jan 17

S.Greetings Ryan,
Did I ever email you regarding your MSS? I did mean to. There is a new ToB MSS detailing our Aeonic work within Vaisnavism. I look forward to seeing the fruits of your working with our currents. Within this year a huge expanse will be made within the ToB and some very posthumanous MSS will be released. Anyhow, it is good to hear of your lucidity work, that is a huge step in mastery of ascent into the acausal and Vampiric Mastery.

Lord Karnac,

I believe we have discussed briefly some of the manuscripts I have written at least, but in reality, no. I extend the offer for you to attend my Temple of the Tangent – a new house for my sinister creations.

http://www.angelfire.com/groups/ttt114 - and feel free to open a dialogue regarding them with me. I too, look forward to discussing aspects of your Temple and its works in detail after a more thorough study of the Lucidity project Lord Karnac – it is a long-term undertaking that will run parallel to my own ONA activities and I estimate mastery of it within six months to a year. If so, this will provide me with invaluable personal experience to teach others the methods and manner in how to achieve this Atr. Thank you for your letter, Sinister Regards,

Ra,
I checked the site, maybe it is a wrong link? It isn't working. I will try on another computer later. Yes, later after I have sent you some new ToB MSS (especially late in 2004 when the posthumanous ones are put down) and you have a chance to look them over, we can discuss more. Also, I look forward to seeing your new creations along this path. It is always a joy to see someone expressing the Sinister in new ways.

Lord Karnac,

I meant to inform you that unfortunately the Sappho cd will not play despite cleaning, testing it repeatedly, and trying to use it on computer and stereo. I was aware of this when I received it – but you had just left and I did not want to interrupt you with a trivial matter so soon into your six month absence.

I would be grateful if you could please resend the cd if at all possible, it is not of immediacy however and could wait until you are sending something else.

On that note, please be sure to inform me prior to any intended delivery of materials just in case at a later date my post box is no longer operational,
Regards LK,

Jan 22

Ra,
Do you have any idea what was wrong with the Sappho CD? I will resend it with some other materials at a later date.
I looked at the site, some great stuff. Also the MS on CB's tarot was interesting. It is good to see emanations of the Sinister being manifested so powerfully. Very pleasing.

Date Unknown:

Likely to be a computer problem caused during the copying process – since the Cd shows no sign of scratches (but it does have your fingerprint!) yet its presence will not be detected by Dvd, Stereo or Computer.

>I will resend materials at a later date

I'd very much appreciate it LK.

And, thank you, I feel the best is yet to come. I found the article most interesting too. Any word from the man who mentioned designing tarot for the ToB?

Jan 22

I do keep in regular contact with the man who said he would make a ToB tarot. He is not going to. Even if he did I would not put a ToB approval stamp on it yet. He has a strong promethean drive, but he is more of a speculative philosopher drunk on words. The ToB wants creativity to be born out of the fires of experience. He is lacking in Sinister Character right now, much potential however. We are comrades, we just operate on different levels. He has no real experience with powerful acausal energies (Not consciously anyhow, he has created some interesting things after visiting a ToB underground cave used in the Cthonic Calling of the Dark Ones. He went temporarily insane, and a few months after began to look into the Sinister Path. I wish him well.

Czar Azag-Kala mentioned making one as well, but I am not sure if he still wants to, he is very much engaged in projects that we need his talents for. So it will be some time before someone steps up and makes such a tarot. I would only accept it from one who went through some of our tougher Wamphyric Change ordeals.
I will keep in touch and let you know before I send anything. If you have anymore info on the "Wraith" creation BBOS 2 Rite, I would appreciate that.
Until Next,

PS. It is interesting that you mention 'wraith' creation. Some time ago now I had a dream which prompted me to write a brief poem. I'll find it and sent it – curiosity only, but nevertheless an interesting coincidence. Ra

Ra,

Your conversation with your girlfriend was interesting. Haha. You are very insightful. In reality the follower of the ToB can go two directions, they can use us and contribute as part of their own evolution. Or the more chosen route, they can become part of the farm. Mmmmm…. Tasty. So much food for us gluttons. Although I do ask you to keep your insight away from some for now. We would lose a lot of wonderful essence if some of them caught on. For others it does not matter if they realize it or not, too late. Some even enjoy it. People as you know need to be told what to do, the ToB fulfills for them the Darkest Reptilian Desires.

Ra,

Here is a recent report given to me by a soon to be Czar. I won't disclose who it is for their privacy, but it may help you.

"SO far this exercise you've given me is yielding… terrifying results. In the span of only a couple of days, a good part of who I was has been burned away. I've become easily irritated and angered lately.
Today, while in contemplation of the Sigil, became extremely confused about the TOB and about everything. Later, I became depressed, to the point of holding my .45 auto in my hand and considering suicide. That passed, and left me with a feeling of a burden lifted, and a drive to complete the fast and contemplation… I'm very very tired – exhausted. Although I've been draining the Blood Force of quite a few people today, I'm just as quickly expending such in my visualizations and chants.

In drawing some of the sigils, I've felt and heard and seen a darkness sweeping down from the blackness between the stars and filling me as I draw.

Being midpoint in this exercise, I can't even lie and say I fully understand it. I'm getting close though.
The numbers 333 keep pouring through my head and spinning my brain, and there's something just beyond my sphere of sensation.

I can feel myself sinking into this blackness, and know.. just KNOW… that I am soon to emerge from it like a Phoenix once it swallows me whole and kills me.

Reborn from my ashes.

Tomorrow night is the end of the 3 dya fast, and the completion of the exercise. I'll send a full report before I break the fast, if you'd like."

Lord Karnac,

I suppose the manuscript with its associated insight could be seen as a 'sword of damocles' – but you appear to have grabbed the blade, causing a cut, rather than the handle (which I intended) to help me swing it. As it stated, the MS, is for You. I am aware of the implementation of strategy, and aiding the Nazarene by revealing the Sinister is NOT part of the plan.

What I would like to do, is work with you to produce some fake diary entries from invisible adherents – requiring your intimate knowledge of the inner workings of the process of making a noctulian to make the diary entries both believable and representative.

I could use my imagination to conjure the 'Path' by which our fake noctulians come to be noctulians, but some details from you about what an adherent might go through are needed.

After writing a few of these entries, we simply post them under pseudonyms when and where it is applicable and let the imagination of the flock do the rest.

The main idea is that the entries are convincing, attractive and magickal. This method COULD instigate the formation of the hidden meaning of my documents name, "PeaSe, love, and munGbeans" – the "Speciel Evolutionaral Gardens".

Ra – Tnepres,

Interesting idea, I like it. One individual I am guiding into Noctulian attainment is supposed to be sending me the results of his 18.333 rite in mss form, but he has since disappeared. Another just completed an interesting ordeal I gave him, but the details are too personal for him to share. But what I can do, is relate to you what we usually put individuals through, and maybe if I see this is going well, I will send you a MSS that I don't believe you have. One that is usually kept secret until later.
As for the intimate details of Noctulian Psychology, this may take a little while to delve into, but to start look at the 18.333 mss (Also please tell me which ToB MSS you have read.) this ordeal is an excellent initiation. The diet causes calcination on a physical level, really wreaking havoc on the neophyte. This is speeded via physical ordeal, and magickal work. They engage in 24/7 Sinister chant. "Brainwashing" basically. I usually have them draw the ToB Sigil 333 times in a notebook to bring our psychick currents into them, and for them to drench the ToB in their own Blood-Essence. Yum. Anyhow, the last sigil is drawn in blood while chanting "Blood, Blood Blood for the Tempel ov Blood". This is sent to my Misterss, myself or a Czar. (The ruling body does consist of real physical individuals, all quite advanced on the Sinister Path. No Czar is below "External Adeptship") We then drain the sigils of the Blood-Essence and transfer it either to the ToB Sigil a physical Nexion, (We have a few growing areas. One in North Carolina which is going to be a Black Pilgrimage area. Another is in the Saginaw, MI, and the current center is in "The Hinterlands") or we use the Blood-Essence to feed Vindex. We are doing well on Vindex creation from multiple directions. That reminds me, some real goodies will be sent in a couple of months. After the Rite, the individual builds themselves back up, in our chosen image. If they have not yet failed or gotten themselves in some serious trouble. At this point it really is individual. So here is what we can do. You create a character, give him or her a real personality, and we will begin turning him into a Noctulian. Or however best works for you. I think this base information is good for now, work with this and then we can go further.

The ToB is definitely pulling down dark forces rapidly, we are "supercharged" with the gifts given by our Czars, and our Vampiric background is really our seat of power.

Lord Karnac,

Thank you for the report – I will put some time aside to construct a preliminary diary entry and character which you may flesh out and add or subtract to/from as you see fit and beneficial.

I have read each of the ToB MSS you have sent me – but intend to READ all of them again shortly. Let's see if I have this right –

1. Similar to the army you break the pattern or routine of both the body and the mind in the initiate. Causing disorientation and a state whereby the initiate is highly susceptible to suggestion.
2. Secondly you re-program the Initiate to serve the ToB selflessly and alter their will, causing a change in interpretation of events; leading to initiates perception of events as being solely beneficial or detrimental to the ToB.
3. Thirdly, the Initiate is previously made aware of this later method of draining their essence, by reading your mss, or by word of mouth, and starting the initiation with this in mind, falls to the suggestion completely, as a result of 1) and 2) with the result of complete obedience to the doctrine of the ToB?

If so, I agree I have enough to construct the character of a pseudo-noctulian in the making from this.

I look forward to seeing the MSS you mentioned.

Ra.

Jan 31

Ra,
You are most correct in our process, at least how it works for the cult followers. Genuine Sinister Adherents work with us differently, as you are an example I need not explain. But it is usually subtle. They slowly become a cell in the organism known as the ToB. Some are immediately pulled in, usually by the charisma of a Cazr or myself. As you know, people are selfish. So they will not give essence without something in return. We DO give them a return flow of Blood, the Blood of Chronozon. Or in special cases, if we like an individual, they are given a taste of our own Blood-Essence. (A Case of this is shown in the MSS Azanigin. The Czar fed the young boy his blood before he went to the nuthouse. The Czar, The Blood Mistress, and Myself are described in some detail in part one. Czar is the smoker, I obviously am the Master of the Tempel, and the woman petting the cat is the Blood-Mistress.) We always put them through experiences that "imprint" the ToB into their minds. We may offer them the fleshy pleasure of a demonic woman, we may put them through harsh ordeals, we alter their state of consciousness etc. Each act that puts them in an ecstatic or altered state they associate with the ToB, thus the ToB is eventually their God. This Tempel is in many ways a social programming experiment. While we do create fanatics, we must make the "fake" adherents entries look as if it is obviously their will and good for them to serve the ToB. It has to be subtle. In the later stages it becomes more overt and at that point it is too late for them to change. They become so alienated from humanity that, well, haha, if they tried to go back, they will still cause so much disruption. Saturn descends…

This is good for now,

Lord Karnac,

Enlightening notes. I drafted these preliminary notes yesterday – why by no means representative of the finished article – read them – and I will drift as the currents dictate.

PS – I posted a new article on "Offerings from Oneira" at the TtT you may be interested in or able to offer commentary on. A full 38 days of dream record, analysis, and conclusions toward opening and exploring Lucid Gates.

Feb 2

Greetings Ra,
The diary entries and the personality of the neonate closely mirror the real experiences of the last individual to go through the 18.333, who has since disappeared. Although the TV coming down from the ceiling seemed rather far-fetched opulent and the word Mistress's talk was almost too dramatic for me. I did in general like the entries. Also the neonate being overtly told not to disobey was not subtle enough, I think that will scare off the hardcore defiant types we also want as our Blood Pool. Maybe if you could change the world to "failure" or something of the sort. If the individuals feel they will be punished for failure, which is really them disobeying the Temple, as everything we tell them to do is considered a task for their alchemical change it will be more subtle. The Nythra story by A. Long is an ethic we uphold. While some do overtly become slaves, that happens after they contact us. But I do like the general direction this is going, and I do think it will be a productive endeavour. I want you to, however, make sure that the neonates position looks attractive to those Slaves of Sathanas out there. We must make individuals want to be a part of the ToB. Do not take the criticism as that you are totally off, you are not. This is looking like it will end up very interesting. When it is finished are you posting it under a new address, or would you like me too? I want it to be sent to the ONA, Satanic Cabal, Tempel of the Nine Angles and ToB groups. Unfortunately, I cannot look at the MSS right now, I do plan on reading all the TtT groups files in the future and will comment then.

I'm going away for a while.

I'll work on it, and paint something for the Discipline MS too.

Let you know when it's done.

Ra,
I look forward to seeing what delightfully Sinister creations come out of that dark mind of yours. Your intuitions about the Tempel and the Discipline MSS no doubt will be in the painting and I loof forward to seeing it. I am also curious to see what our new neophyte will write in his journal. May the Cold Black Hand of Sathanas be upon you – in Perpetuity.
